Your village, Your voice, Your news

Published quarterly by Fishbourne Parish Council

Media Pack

The Fishbourne Village Voice is published quarterly by Fishbourne Parish Council on the first days of March, June, September and December. The Village Voice is a full-colour, A4 format quarterly publication delivered door to door to over 1,200 residential premises in the Parish of Fishbourne. It is not affiliated with Fishbourne Parish Church or its Parochial Church Council. The Village Voice is mainly concerned with matters of local government including planning, development, facilities and infrastructure. It also carries information about meetings of social groups and events at the world-famous Fishbourne Roman Palace.

While every care is taken to ensure accuracy of copy, advertising and graphics, the publisher and printers cannot accept liability for errors or omissions. Any artwork (including advertising) will be accepted at owner's risk. The accuracy or content of any advertisement is not warranted by this Parish Council nor does this Parish Council endorse or guarantee any of the products or services advertised. The views expressed in this paper are not necessarily those of the Parish Council. All copy is correct at time the publication was sent to print.

The Village Voice is written and compiled by Parish Councillors who are elected or co-opted by residents of the Parish of Fishbourne, and printed locally.

A digital version of the magazine is also published online at the website of Fishbourne Parish Council, reaching a wider audience than the print version.
